

The Archive and Library - Terms of Use

Copies of these terms are available to take away. A large print version is available, please ask.

Please sign our visitors' book to accept our terms of use and tell us why you're visiting today. The information you supply helps us to measure use and provide a better service. We won't use your details for marketing. Our privacy policy is available online (<https://www.historicengland.org.uk/terms/privacy-cookies>)

Handling items:-

To help us to preserve items for future generations, please:-

- Follow any instructions given by staff and use any supports provided
- Wear the gloves provided to handle photographs
- Turn pages and look through boxes carefully
- Avoid leaning on, or placing anything on top of archive items
- Don't use anything that may permanently mark items - use a soft pencil if taking notes
- Don't eat or drink – you can do this out in the foyer

Making copies:-

All copying is subject to the copyright status and physical condition of the original, please:-

- Ask at the desk before copying archive items, you may need permission from the copyright holder
- If you are copying library items, read the posters by the copier to make sure your copying is permitted
- Handle items with care, don't flatten them or remove any tags or bindings
- Tell us if you notice any damage to an item before copying it
- Ask at the desk for a personal photography form if you would like to photograph any item for reference (terms apply).
- If you wish to make a copy for a purpose other than personal research or private study, you will need permission to do so – please ask about reproduction permission

Staff and other visitors:-

- Please follow any instructions given by staff regarding handling and copying
- Step out into the foyer to make or take a call on your mobile
- Treat staff and other visitors courteously

Your belongings:-

- Take care of your belongings – we can't accept responsibility for items left unattended - you can leave items in lockers at Reception

Please turn over

All information is supplied by the Historic England Archive under these terms and conditions:-

Agreement for Use of Information from Historic England

1 Use of Historic England Information

The Historic England Archive is part of the Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England (“Historic England”).

All information is supplied by the Historic England Archive in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement to the individual, organisation, or company named (“You”), for internal purposes or private research, as specified by You in Your original enquiry. It is supplied in accordance with Historic England service standards and payment terms.

You may not copy, publish, or otherwise make available, or commercially exploit information supplied by Historic England under this Agreement without Historic England’s written permission, whether or not the information supplied is copyright material.

The information must not be used for purposes which may lead to damage to archaeological sites, historic buildings and landscapes.

2 Reproduction and Charges

Historic England, the Crown, or other licensors are the owners of all rights including copyright and database rights in the information. If You wish to reproduce, publish or otherwise make available or commercially exploit it, or any part of it, You must apply for permission to Archive Services at the address below before You carry out any reproduction or publication. Reproduction fees may be payable regardless of the copyright status of the information requested. Where applicable, we may direct You to the relevant copyright holder if we are not authorised to give information on the copyright holder’s behalf.

Warning: Reproduction fees for applications made at short notice or following reproduction/publication are higher than the standard rates due to the need to expedite the application.

3 Assignment

Your rights under this Agreement cannot be assigned, transferred, or sub-licensed without the prior written permission of Historic England.

4 Breach

Failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement by You will be construed as a material breach of them, and will result in the immediate termination of the Agreement. Historic England may, where appropriate, seek compensatory damages from You and/or the return of any Information supplied under this Agreement.

5 Disclaimer

Historic England gives no warranties in connection with the information provided to You pursuant to this Agreement including in relation to its completeness and/or accuracy. Historic England cannot be held responsible for any decisions made in reliance on the information.

6 Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of England and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

Address for Copyright and Reproduction Permission enquiries:

Archive Services, Historic England, The Engine House, Fire Fly Avenue, Swindon, SN2 2EH
Telephone: 01793 414600 Fax: 01793 414606 Email: archive@HistoricEngland.org.uk